Dear Dr. Adekunle:

The 2023 Annual Report for the M.Arch. program at University of Utah was reviewed during the April 26–27, 2024, meeting of the Board of Directors of the National Architectural Accrediting Board (NAAB).

Based on the review of the Annual Report, the NAAB directors voted to accept the Annual Report and require a Special Report to address the following areas:

Condition 6.4: Public Access to Accreditation Reports and Related Documents

The program must provide a link via the program's website of NCARB ARE pass rates.

Condition 6.5: Admissions and Advising

The program must provide a link via the program's website to documentation of the forms and a description of the process for evaluating the content of a non-accredited degree.

Condition 6.6: Student Financial Information

The program must provide a link via the program's website to student financial information.

The program must demonstrate that students have access to an initial estimate for all tuition, fees, books, general supplies, and specialized materials that may be required during the full course of study for completing the NAAB-accredited degree program.

The program must provide a narrative and supporting evidence to demonstrate compliance with these Conditions. The Special Report is due no later than June 30, 2024.
